

Today's Business Communication... Made Easy

The IP705 Phone from Metropark makes a power statement for large scale functionality at the price of an entry level phone. Bringing stylish form and functionality to the desktop, the IP 705 phone make sophisticated features simple and intuitive to use. Users have single button access to voicemail, activity/presence selection, voicemail greeting selections, call recording, call conferencing, call transferring, and even placing calls to employees in +other countries.

Convenience

IP 705 VoIP telephone users have a convenient single button access to voicemail, call conferencing, call transferring, redial and call log lists.

With a two-line liquid crystal display, the IP 705 is capable of displaying time, caller ID name or number, and do-not-disturb and call forwarding status. Five backlit, user-defined, programmable keys can be setup for any combination of available features like, but not limited to, speed-dialing, extension busy/ringing appearances, call appearances and line appearances.

The IP 705 also supports third party hands free headsets using an amplified industry standard RJ9 headset port. The IP705 comes standard with 3rd party hands free headset support using a dedicated headset answering button and amplified industry standard RJ9 and 2.5mm headset ports.

Also provided is traditional and melodic ring tones which can also be assigned to call, line, and extension appearances on the programmable keys.

Productivity Features

- One button access for voice recording to your personal voicemail box or to a centralized server
- One button access to voicemail
- Five user-programmable keys for extension, line appearances, feature codes, or speed dialing
- Auto answer feature allows calls to be answered automatically to a defined voice device within a specific ring time. Great for call center service agents with headsets or office operators
- 2-port Ethernet Switch
- Optional Power over Ethernet (PoE) support Availability

The IP705 is considered an entry level standard desktop IP Altigen phone with 5 programmable keys, speakerphone, and intercom. A real step up over other manufactures basic phone.